

Study Areas and Careers Related to Agriculture and the Environment

The list of degree programs and study areas below is by no means comprehensive but provides suggestions for consideration by individuals interested in a wide range of careers related to agriculture and the environment. Conceivably, any of the degree programs or study areas could lead toward any of the careers and employment opportunities. The following two web sites contain links to degree descriptions.

- <https://ung.edu/academics/bachelor-degree-listing.php>
- <http://majors.admissions.uga.edu/>

Study Areas		Careers & Employment Opportunities
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Agribusiness • Agriculture • Art • Biology – Plant, Wildlife • Biotechnology • Botany • Chemistry • Communications • Computer Science • Data Science • Ecology • Economics • Education • English • Entomology • Environmental Health • Environmental Law • Environmental Science • Environmental Spatial Analysis • Film & Digital Media • Fisheries & Wildlife • Food Science • Forestry • Genetics 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Geographic Information Science Cert. • Horticulture • Information Systems & Technology • Journalism • Landscape Architecture • Leadership & Service Certificate • Legal Studies Certificate • Management • Marketing • Microbiology • Natural Resource Mgmt and Sustainability • Natural Resource Recreation & Tourism • Personal & Org. Leadership Cert. • Photography • Plant Biology • Pre-law • Public Relations • Science Education • Scientific Illustration • Sustainability Certificate • Teacher Education • Technology Management • Turfgrass Management • Water & Soil Resources 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Arborist • Artist, photographer • Communications – news media, on-line, other publishing • Conservation organizations • Environmental Law Center • Environmental protection labs at various universities • Environmental responsibility department of various companies • Farming • Georgia Department of Natural Resources • Georgia Forestry Commissions • Government – city, state, federal • Marketing • Pesticide applicator • Recreation organizations • Research -- universities, government agencies, scientific companies • Teaching • Tourism/hospitality • Tree farms & nurseries • U. S. Forest Service • Youth organizations such as FFA, Scouts, camps

